Affidavit of Anthony Brown

COUNTY OF WAYNE)

I, Anthony Brown, first being duly sworn, deposes and says: On October 24th 1991 there was a shooting that happened at 29673 Oakland Street in the City of Inkster. Because I had been in the home that the shooting happened prior to the shooting. And was in the area at the time of the shooting. I was stopped and questioned several times by Detective Greg Hill.

In February 1992 I was picked up by Detective Greg Hill and brought back in to look at some photos of possible suspects. I was shown the pictures of Marco Johnson and Vargas Johnson with a collection of other photos in a mug book. Detective Hill asked me if I had ever seen Marco or Vargas before. He told me that these were two possible suspects in the case.

And that's how I got the nickname Peanut of Marco. The truth is that I used drugs the night of the shooting. And I was standing at the other end of the block when I heard gun shots. But I couldn't see who was shooting. If it wasn't for the photos, I never would have known the name Peanut or linked it with Marco Johnson.

Further Deponent sayeth not.
