order Order on Motion for Leave to File Thu 09/15 5:23 PM

TEXT-ONLY ORDER: Washtenaw County, a non-party which just filed an appearance today as an "Interested Party," seeks leave to file an amicus brief and requests a brief adjournment of tomorrow's hearing, noting that its counsel was only retained "yesterday" and concerned about the precedent that might be set "throughout this District," based on a motion to compel that was filed "a month ago." (ECF No.45 , PageID.642-643.) The instant motion lacks appreciation for the rules of precedent or judicial economy. The motion to be heard tomorrow (ECF No.34) has indeed been pending for exactly one month, and the Court is prepared to hear it. Washtenaw Countys motion (ECF No.45) is DENIED as to its request for an eleventh hour adjournment; however, its request to file an amicus brief is CONDITIONALLY GRANTED, but only in the event that ECF No.34 is taken under advisement tomorrow, in which case Washtenaw County may file a brief not to exceed six pages on or before September 23, 2022. It is SO ORDERED. Entered by Magistrate Judge Anthony P. Patti. (LHos)
